

KASL Consulting Engineers provides a full range of construction support services for site and civil engineering projects tailored to meet the client needs. These services include:

Civil Engineering Support

- Review and reply to requests for information (RFIs), review and approval of submittals, preparation of change orders and issuance of plan revisions
- Field engineering services
- Perform quality control and inspection services
- Assist with pump and other mechanical system start-ups
- Design and preparation of storm water pollution prevention plans (SWPPP) and obtain National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) permits for construction activities
- Preparation of as-built plans

Surveying Support

- Control surveys
- Construction layout and staking
- Monitoring of as-built construction
- Post construction surveys

